*Do you ever wonder who that smile on his face is Because every time he's around you he seems to misplace it
Well I'm the one behind it and you can't erase it
Get a clue
Get a clue
Because every time I steal a kiss oh how the taste of it lingers
And when I feel his fingertips oh how my body tingles
But I never saw a clearer sign than the one upon his finger
Get a clue
Get a clue
There's no getting out of this vacancy
I've been stuck here for a while without any
You could do the devil proud with just your deeds
But I'll no longer stick around because I've got needs
Get a clue
Get a clue
Get a clue, he will never love you
Get a clue, he will never change
Get a clue, look into the mirror
Isn't that your face?
When you're deep in slumber I'm what keeps him awake
I'm for what he hungers and you're just a taste
But I don't know who's dumber
Is it you or is it me
Get a clue
Get a clue
Because every time I steal a kiss oh how the taste of it lingers
And when I feel his fingertips oh how my body tingles
But I never saw a clearer sign than the one upon his finger
Get a clue
Get a clue
There's no getting out of this vacancy
I've been stuck here for a while without any
You could do the devil proud with just your deeds*
