*Love was only a myth
Until the touch of your lips
Baby with just one kiss
A kaleidoscope of emotions
Passion was only a dream
Until you made it reality
Doubts they get lost in my screams
As we set the night into motion*

*And it's you that can tame the fire in my heart
And it's you that can light a flame on any part
Of my aching body
In you I have faith
You're all I know
You are my life
You're my control
In you I believe
You're my religion*

*My travels into the unknown
Have shown me such pleasure untold
Pages so thick they won't fold
Book of love you speak of such notions*

*And it's you that can tame the fire in my heart
And it's you that can light a flame on any part
Of my aching body
In you I have faith
You're all I know
You are my life
You're my control
In you I believe
You're my religion*

*Save me from this lust
Bath me in your touch
Rid me of the dust
Feelings cover me like a lotion*

*And it's you that can tame the fire in my heart
And it's you that can light a flame on any part
Of my aching body
In you I have faith
You're all I know
You are my life
You're my control
